Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Robert D. Brown has always believed in serving the public in any capacity; and,

WHEREAS, Robert D. Brown served his country, his state and his community during World War II as a serviceman in the United States Navy; and,

WHEREAS, Robert D. Brown has, for over forty years, committed his life to public service; and,

WHEREAS, Robert D. Brown exemplifies those characteristics most admired in a public servant; and,

WHEREAS, Robert D. Brown has served the people of Vermillion in their Electric Department, always arriving early and staying late, until the job is done and done well; and,

WHEREAS, After forty years of service, beginning on August 7, 1946, Robert D. Brown will retire on March 27, 1987; and,

WHEREAS, Bob's many friends, relatives, and co-workers will gather to honor Bob on the occasion of his retirement for his lifetime of dedicated service to the United States of America, the state of South Dakota and the city of Vermillion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 27, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
